

Cara Tuzzolino ESL Lecturer

I am an English as a Second Language (ESL) instructor in an intensive English immersion program.

How long have you been a lecturer?

I've spent 10 years at this job but have been in the industry since 2003.

Where do you currently work?

Nassau Community College (Long Island, NY)

How do you spend most of your time at work?

- 1) Preparing advanced ESL students for college-level work in academic reading, writing and listening
- 2) Grammar instruction
- 3) Group projects

Why did you choose this career?

I've always loved languages and knew I'd eventually become a teacher (after an initial career in journalism). I volunteered in an ESL program when I was working in publishing and it was like a light bulb went off--ah ha! I went to graduate school for TESOL. I later took coursework in teaching writing to ESL students and found the ideal fit.

What did you do to prepare for this career?

I received an MA and then an Ed.M. in TESOL, plus three semesters of student teaching in a community-based program.

What do you enjoy most about your job?

Helping students move towards their academic and professional goals

What do you find most challenging about your job?

Students lack of access to technology.

What is one piece of advice you would give to a young person who is interested in your profession?

Travel the world, experience other cultures and definitely study another language. You will feel what it's like to be a second language learner and struggle with acquiring another language.
