The confidence that was given to me after my experience having braces and given a great smile changed my life, and I wanted to be able to do the same for others.

What do you find most challenging about your job?

Straightening teeth is typically a 1-2 year process. Many of us want instant gratification so being patient and waiting for optimal results can be challenging.

It's a lot of work but it's worth it in the end. The lifestyle and satisfaction each day makes it a job that I love to do!

HEATHER'S FUN FACT
"Parenthood" is a favorite show! I wish I had more time for this but with work and 3 kids, there's not much time left for TV.
