

Lore Reinhart Library Director

I run the Randolph Library in Morris County, NJ. We provide library services to a population of about 25,000 people.

How long have you been a Library Director?

I have been working as a Library Director for 25 years.

Where do you currently work?

I work for the Randolph Township Free Public Library.

How do you spend most of your time at work?

- 1) Purchasing library materials such as books, audiobooks, & movies
- 2) Supervising a staff of 25 people
- 3) Presenting programs for people of all ages
- 4) Handling all aspects of public relations including our online presence

Why did you chose this career?

I love reading and being in the library. I value everything the library has to offer the public.

What did you do to prepare for this career?

I have a college degree and a master's degree in Library Science. Also, I had over 20 years of experience working in libraries before becoming the Director.

What do you enjoy most about your job?

Helping people find the library materials they want/need. Presenting story time to children. Finding new ways to provide options to our residents such as when we began loaning free museum passes. No two days are the same. I perform a variety of different tasks so I don't get bored.

What do you find most challenging about your job?

Supervising the staff can be challenging.

What is one piece of advice you would give to a young person who is interested in your profession?

I would suggest working in a library before you make a decision. You can then see if you would really like it.
